

BIKE TO SCHOOL WEEK 2018

PEEL REGION
MAY 28 - JUNE 1, 2018

Bike to School Week is a celebration launched across Ontario to encourage cycling to and from school. Visit sutori.com/story/bike-to-school-week-2018 for highlights from Bike to School Week 2018 in Peel Region! Interested in joining Bike to School Week in spring 2019? Want to encourage more cycling at your school? Contact walkandroll@peelregion.ca

13,992 students in Peel participated in Bike to School Week 2018, making a total of 19,395 trips by bike in Peel!

During Bike to School Week, the percentage of students biking to school increased from less than 1% to 6%!

70% of participating schools completed the 2018 Bike to School Week Reporting Survey - the second highest response rate in all of Ontario!

78% of reporting schools in Peel are willing to participate in Bike to School Week again next year!

B2SW 2018 Outcomes

Encouraged Cycling

92% of schools who reported back said more students biked
78% of Peel students said they were more likely to bike in the future

Improved Skills & Safety

68% said students' awareness of cycling skills and safety increased

Stronger Partnerships

25% said they formed new or strengthened partnership(s) with community organization(s)